

MARION, Ind. - After attempting to play multiple opponents this Fall, Indiana Wesleyan football has something to look forward to in 2021, with the announcement of the 2021 Mid-State Football Association Football schedule.

"It has been a long and challenging road, but we are very excited to have our regular season schedule set," said Head Football Coach Jordan Langs. "Playing a Spring season will present many different challenges, but our players and coaches are looking forward to our third season competing in the best NAIA football conference in the country."

Moving the fall schedule to the spring due to COVID-19, the Wildcats will host four opponents at home, starting with Sienna Heights on March 6th. After a road trip to NAIA premier powerhouse No. 2 Marian University on March 13th, the red and gray return home for three straight games, with IWU's final home game taking place on April 3rd against Concordia University.
